14th ICAM ORGANIZERS

Dear colleagues!
Welcome to Belgorod, Russia!

The Organizing Committee herewith invites you to the 14th International Congress on Applied Mineralogy (ICAM 2019),
on 23–27 September 2019,
at Belgorod State Technological University named after V. G. Shukhov

The Congress motto is:
“Applied mineralogy: the future is born today”.
The ICAM Congress intends to be a forum to discuss the latest science trends, to strengthen the prestige of science, and to create new professional contacts.

The Congress registration fee includes Congress Proceedings
(to be published by Springer Science), access to all Congress events (technical sessions, meetings, exhibition), coffee and tea breaks, lunches, technical visit to the Lebedinsky Processing Plant. Until December 1, 2018, the early registration fee is 300 EUR. A reduced registration fee of 150 EUR applies for students, postgraduates and doctoral students, as well as non-working retirees (proof of status required with registration).

The Organizing Committee provides a discussion club for young scientists.

The information on the ICAM 2019 website is always the most up-to-date:

CONTACT US

If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Prof. Dr. Olga Kotova, ICAM 2019 Congress secretary: kotova@geo.komisc.ru or icam2019@gmail.com.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Delegates are invited to submit original manuscripts not published elsewhere before, within the themes of the ICAM 2019. Manuscripts MUST be submitted through the online editorial system; submissions via postal mail or email will NOT be considered. Manuscripts are strictly limited to four (4) typeset pages, including title, authors and affiliations, keywords, main text, literature references, figures, and tables. For students, postgraduates and retired, paying a fee of 150 euros, manuscripts are strictly limited to two (2) typeset pages. A template for manuscript preparation is available at the Congress web-page. Only submissions of fully registered (=paid fee) delegates will be included with the ICAM Proceedings published by Springer Science in a fully indexed volume (Scopus).

CALL FOR WORKSHOPS

Delegates are invited to submit workshop proposals. Contact ICAM 2019 Congress secretary Mrs. Prof. Dr. Olga Kotova at kotova@geo.komisc.ru for submission details. Proposals will be screened by the Scientific Committee, and approved topics will be announced in the second circular. The workshops will be organized on Saturday and/or Sunday immediately preceding the ICAM Congress.

Scientists are cordially invited to hold workshops!
